Research Expertise

Methods expertise in the application of statistical, geospatial and digital ecological, and agent/individual based computer modeling techniques to archaeological, behavioral, environmental, and ethnographic data. Topical expertise in human-environment interactions, climate change, and socioecological influences on inequality, territoriality, and resilience. Regions of interest are the Central Andes and western North America.

Appointments

Academic

- 2022-Pr. National Science Foundation SBE Postdoctoral Research Fellow (SPRF), Department of Geography, University of Utah. Salt Lake City, UT
- 2022-Pr. Research Affiliate. University of Utah Archaeological Center, University of Utah. Salt Lake City, UT
- 2020-21 Marriner Eccles Graduate Fellow. Graduate College, University of Utah. Salt Lake City, UT
- 2019-20 University Teaching Assistant. University of Utah, Salt Lake City, UT
- 2017-18 Graduate Fellow. Global Change & Sustainability Center, University of Utah, Salt Lake City, UT

Higher Education

- 2013-15 Hall Director (undergraduate and underrepresented student programs). Department of Residence, Iowa State University, Ames, IA
- 2011-13 Graduate Student Academic Advisor (undergraduate student advising). College of Business, Iowa State University, Ames IA

Education

- 2017-22 Ph.D. – Anthropology, University of Utah, Salt Lake City, UT. “The Ecology of Inequality: Assessing Environmental Influence on Tradeoffs for Differential Resource Access”. Committee: Brian Coddington (chair), Daniel Contreras, Kristen Hawkes, Jack Broughton, Joan Brenner Coltrain.
- 2015-17 M.A. – Anthropology with GIS Graduate Certificate, Iowa State University, Ames, IA. “Late Pleistocene Extinction of the Flat-Headed Peccary on the Ozark Plateau: Paleozoological Insights from Peccary Cave, Arkansas”. Committee: Matthew G. Hill (chair), Alan Wanamaker, Jill Pruetz
- 2011-13 M.Ed. – Higher Education, Iowa State University, Ames, IA
- 2006-10 B.A. – History, University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, La Crosse, WI

Summary

Publications

14: 9 published/accepted; 5 submitted/under review

Peer Review Journal: 11

Edited Volumes/Book Chapters: 3

Grant Funding

$268,394 Total

External: $156,698 (incl. National Science Foundation & Bureau of Land Management)

Internal: $111,696 ($93,696 for research and $18,000 for teaching)

Teaching

8 Courses

4 undergraduate and 1 graduate as instructor of record

3 as instructor of record for lab sections

Student Mentorship

24 B.S./B.A. and M.S./M.A. students

Advising students on student led publications (4), research and analytical skills via lab and fieldwork, developing public education skills, and on professional presentations

Teaching Experience

Teaching Interests

Statistical Analysis of Social Science Data, The Anthropology of Inequality, Agent-Based / Simulation, Environmental Archaeology, Spatial Analysis, Latin American Prehistory, North American Prehistory, Climate Change and Human Behavior, World Prehistory, Human-Environment Interactions and Complex Societies

Instructor of Record

Anthropology Capstone: Hidden Research Skills (Undergraduate Anth 5500, Spring 2020, 2021, 2022)

Developed and delivered a repeatable capstone course to advance student skills in academic writing, critical thinking, communicating original research, providing effective peer-feedback, and making peer and faculty connections to enhance collaboration, research capability, resiliency, self-belief, and student ability to face fear of failure. (in-person and online via Zoom and Canvas)

Department of Anthropology, University of Utah

Advanced North American Prehistory (co-instructor; Graduate Anth 6305, Fall 2020)

Co-taught a graduate seminar-course focused on teaching North American Prehistory while developing student skills in presenting and leading learning, conducting effective identification of gaps in archaeological knowledge, and critically assessing archaeological topics. (online via Zoom and Canvas)

Department of Anthropology, University of Utah

Introduction to Cultural Anthropology – Lab Sections (Undergraduate Anth 201, Spring 2016, 2017)

Taught multiple lab sections and designed weekly lesson plans for lab sections/instructors to provide experiential learning and critical thinking and reading skills relating to expand understandings of human diversity. (in-person)
Department of Anthropology, Iowa State University

Skeletal Biology – Lab Section (Undergraduate/Graduate Anth 319/519, Spring 2017)

Conducted formal training in element and feature identification for undergraduate and graduate students. (in-person)
Department of Anthropology, Iowa State University

Archaeology Lab Methods – Lab Sections (Undergraduate Anth 308, Fall 2015, 2016)

Designed weekly lesson plans and instructed all lab sections to provide experiential, hands-on, learning guiding students in thinking critically about archaeological survey planning, artifact identification, and artifact and pattern interpretation. (in-person)
Department of Anthropology, Iowa State University

Expanded Orientation: Learning Communities (Undergraduate BusAd 102, Fall 2012 – Fall 2013)

Taught orientation course and coordinated non-residential major-based learning communities to develop community, connections to peers and the college, and enhance time to degree and retention. (in-person)
College of Business, Iowa State University

Orientation (Undergraduate BusAd 101, Fall 2011 – Spring 2013)

Taught a half semester orientation to the college to enhance student time to degree and retention. (in-person)
College of Business, Iowa State University

Women's Studies: Gender Justice (Undergraduate WS 160, Fall 2011)

Instructed a half semester course providing an introduction to patriarchy, sexism, and ally development. (in-person)
Department of Women's Studies, Iowa State University

Teaching Assistant

Sama Valley (Peru) Archaeological Field School (June - August 2019)

Assisted in supervising and instructing students on residential and burial excavation of a complex post-Tiwanaku site, transect survey for archaic through historic period site locations, artifact identification, and cataloging recovered artifacts.

Washington University in St. Louis

Invited Guest Lecturer

World Prehistory (University of Utah, K.B. Vernon [Spring 2019, Fall 2019]; B.F. Coddling [Fall 2021]), Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (Iowa State University, C. Gish Hill [Fall 2017]), Archaeology Methods (University of California Merced, B. Scaffidi [Spring 2022])

Student Mentorship

Advising 4 student researchers (3 M.A., 1 undergraduate) on student led publications
Mentoring 1 M.A. and 1 B.S. researcher on a public facing historic archaeology project
Advised/advising 8 B.S./B.A. researchers on individual research projects
Mentored/mentoring 7 B.S./B.A. & 2 M.A. researchers on skill development via my research
Advised 6 M.A. (current and former) students on public education lesson design project

Field & Research Experience

Ongoing & Forthcoming

- 2022- The Evolutionary Dynamics of Religion, Family Size, and Child Success
Team Member
Agent-based modeling evaluating conditions under which allocare may outcompete non-allocare strategies and comparing the competitiveness of differing allocare strategies in post-industrial societies. Rich Sosis, University of Connecticut (PI), Elic Weitzel, University of Connecticut (Co-Team Member)
- 2022- Dynamic Impacts of Environmental Change and Biomass Harvesting on Woodland Ecosystems and Traditional Livelihoods Project: National Science Foundation CNH-L - 1741972
Agent-Based Modeling Expert
Aiding the development of an agent-based model, as part of a much larger project, to evaluate the feedback effects of human firewood harvesting on forest condition and composition and the impact of changing condition and composition on Indigenous wood-harvester’s ability to meet their energy needs. Kate Magargal, University of Utah (Co-PI), Brian Coddling, University of Utah (Co-PI), Simon Brewer, University of Utah (Co-PI)
- 2022- Bonneville Basin Taphonomic Correction Interdisciplinary National Science Foundation Project BCS – 1921072
Researcher
Systematic survey of landforms and open-air archaeological sites to link local geologic processes with preservation of dateable material for taphonomic correction to radiocarbon date-based estimates of past population density.
(intended 2020, postponed due to Covid-19), Bonneville Basin, UT/NV. Brian F. Coddling, University of Utah (PI), Daniel Contreras, University of Florida (Co-PI)

Completed

- 2022 Bear River Massacre Site Archaeological Survey partnered with Shoshone Tribal Leadership
Volunteer
Systematic survey of the Bear River Massacre site surrounding locations. Preparatory work for an interpretive center and memorial plus ecological reconstruction led by the Shoshone Tribe. Franklin County, ID. Shoshone Council (PI), Brian F. Coddling (Co-PI)

- 2022 Sama Archaeological Project
Researcher
Transect survey of Sama Valley, Peru, and inter-valley regions recording archaic through historic artifacts, residential and burial sites, and Colonial period roadways. Household, wall, midden, and burial excavation on the Los Botanes walled settlement.
June-August, Sama, Peru. Sarah Baitzel, Washington University of St. Louis (PI), Arturo Rivera-Infante (Co-PI), Noa Corcoran-Tadd, Princeton & Harvard Universities, (Co-PI), Brianna Langlie, Binghamton University (Co-PI)
- 2022 Archaeological Survey of Cottonwood Wash, San Rafael Desert, Emory County, Utah
PhD Field Technician
Section 110 Archaeological inventory of rock art and survey to locate and record artifact clusters, features, isolated tools, and sites.
Cottonwood Wash, Emory County, UT. Brian F. Coddling, University of Utah (PI), Jerry Spangler, Colorado Plateau Archaeological Alliance (Co-PI)
- 2021 Strawberry Reservoir Archaeological Project
PhD Field Technician
Site recording and preliminary test excavation of archaic hearth and paleo-archaic lithic features in collaboration with the Forest Service. Training for undergraduate students in field methods.
Strawberry Reservoir, UT. Tom Flannigan, Forest Service (PI), Brian F. Coddling, University of Utah (Co-PI)
- 2019 Weaning & Life History in the Late Intermediate Period, Peru
Preparation and processing of dental specimens for serial isotope sampling from Nazca region, Peru for investigation of life-history changes.
Alex Greenwald, University of Utah, Weston McCool, Univ. of California Santa-Barbara (Co-PIs)
- 2019 Sama Archaeological Project
PhD TA Supervisor
Transect survey of Sama Valley, Peru, and inter-valley regions recording archaic through historic artifacts, residential and burial sites, and Colonial period roadways. Household, wall, midden, and burial excavation on the Los Botanes walled settlement. Training for undergraduate students in field methods.
June-August, Sama, Peru. Sarah Baitzel, Washington University of St. Louis (PI), Arturo Rivera-Infante (Co-PI)
- 2019 Sibinacocha Archaeo-Paleo-Environmental Expedition
PhD Field Technician
Test excavations and site feature recordings of high elevation late-prehistoric to colonial households and corrals on the shore of Lake Sibinacocha as part of an inter-disciplinary project conducting paleo-environmental reconstruction and archaeological investigation.
May, Lake Sibinacocha, Cusco Highlands, Peru. Bronwen Konecky, Washington University of St. Louis (PI), Sarah Baitzel, Washington University of St. Louis (Co-PI).
- 2018-19 Central Andean Isotope Database Project
Director
Development and compilation of a comprehensive database of stable isotope records on archaeological individuals from Peru and Northern Chile. Instruction and mentorship of students on database design, data entry, and geographic information systems.
Kurt Wilson (PI), University of Utah Archaeological Center (UUAC), University of Utah
- 2018 Sama Archaeological Project
PhD Field Technician

Transect survey of Sama Valley, Peru, recording archaic through historic artifacts and sites. Household and burial excavation on the Los Botanes walled settlement.

June-July, Valley of Sama, Peru. Sarah Baitzel, Washington University of St. Louis (PI), Arturo Rivera-Infante (Co-PI)

- 2016-17 Butterfly Geolocation & Peccary Dietary Reconstruction Isotope Analysis
Light stable carbon, nitrogen, and oxygen sample preparation and analysis of modern butterfly wings for geolocation of migration and of extinct peccary tusks for dietary reconstruction.
Kurt Wilson, Iowa State University (Co-PI), Matthew G Hill, Iowa State University (Co-PI), & Alan Wanamaker, Iowa State University (Co-PI) – Peccary Project
Royce Bitzer, Iowa State University (Co-PI) & Alan Wanamaker, Iowa State University (Co-PI) – Butterfly Project
- 2015 Greybull River Sustainable Landscape Ecology (GRSLE) Pre- and Historic-Archaeological Project
Systematic survey, site recording, and test excavation of high elevation prehistoric habitation sites, lithic scatters, and a historic cabin.
June-July, Absaroka Mountains, Meeteetsee, WY. Lawrence C. Todd, GRSLE and Colorado State University Professor Emeritus (PI)
